

Member News:

Bryant Hertel's family was nominated and accepted the Cap Fed True Blue Citizen award by a friend in Boy Scouts. The nomination was for work they do for their fundraiser, K9 Vests. The spot was filmed on Wednesday, July 23rd at 10am at the downtown Capitol Federal Savings.

Bill Leifer's son, Ben, an in-demand jazz bassist in Kansas City, was a member of a combo that competed in June against top jazz entrants from all over the United States, from California to New York, at the Gene Harris Jazz Festival in Idaho. Their combo won the entire competition, performing all original material, landing them a recording contract with Origins Records for a CD that will be produced by their mentor, Bobby Watson. Their winning combo also opened the next night for the top headliners at the festival.

Note:

MEMBER NEWS is a new feature of The Observer and is intended for any kind of news about any member and their families. This is a bragging corner and also a community news feature. Please tell us about events important to you and your family. Anything is fair game. Recent vacations, promotions, awards, even misfortunes that you would like other members to be aware of, convictions, imprisonments, etc. LOL

- The editor